There is considerable excitement in Ellis and vicinity east of there over some sort of an animal supposed to be a mountain lion. 'Tis reported that it has killed two calves for John Norcross and parties are hunting for it whatever it may be. We hope they may be successful in locating it and killing it, as it is if a lion a very unsafe animal to be at large.

MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, December 7, 1915. With the yards well cleared last week, a run of 18000 cattle yesterday would have been handled at steady to strong prices, except for a heavy supply at Chicago. This prevented any improvement on beef steers, which sold weak to 15 lower, but other classes of cattle sold strong in spite of lower reports from Chicago. Today the run here is 13000 head and trade is more active on all kinds, prices steady to strong. Christmas beefs are lacking so far, except one load of near prime steers yesterday, which sold at $9.75, 1534 lbs. average. Short fed steers sold up to $8.40 today, and some choice yearlings brought $9.25. Plain short fed steers weighing 1200 to 1350 lbs are selling at $7.00 to $7.90, and common beef steers weighing 1200 to 1350 lbs are selling at $7.00 to $7.90, and common beef steers sell as low as $6.50. Butcher cattle have been selling steady to strong for a week, best heavy cows at $5.75 to $6.75, and choice heifers up to $9.00, common cows $3.75 to $4.50, bulls higher this week, mostly at $5.00 to $5.50, veal calves $7.50 to $9.00. Demand for stockers and feeders is strong, and prices are slightly higher, especially on stock cows and heifers. A big string of Panhandle stock steers, 786 lbs average, sold yesterday at $7.05, good ones bring $6.75 to $7.00, well bred stockers $6.00 to $6.75, common steers $5.25 to $5.75, stock cows $4.50 to $5.50, stock heifers $5.50 to $6.50. Clean up shipments from the panhandle ranges and from Colorado are coming, although consignments of fed cattle from the Panhandle country will come all winter, shipments off the grass from there this season being more than 50 below normal because of plenty of feed for winter handling.

Hog receipts today are 19000 head, following the same number received yesterday. The market dropped 15 to 25 yesterday, and it looked lower at the start today, but there was a quick change for the better, and the close was 5 to 10 higher, top $6.57 1-2 bulk of sales $6.15 to $6.50. Packers led in the buying, and their change of front was due to a rise of 60 cents in pork today, which more than repaired the loss of yesterday on that commodity. Latest statements of product on hand are bullish, and indicate material is going into consumptive channels as fast as it can be made. Money is cheap and packers evidently find hogs good property at present prices.

Sheep and lambs sold strong today, top lambs $8.85, yearlings $7.50, receipts 9700 head. Advance shipments of pea fed lambs are arriving from the Monte Vistadistrict, and sold at $8.70 to $8.85 today. Wethers are worth up to $6.50, ewes $6.00. Feeding lambs are higher than last week, at $8.15 to $8.50, one lot of fleshy Mexican lambs, 67 lbs average, to feeder buyers yesterday at $8.60. The market has a strong appearance, encouraging to feeders.
